NEWS OF SOUTH SIDE

THE CHRISTMAS MASS.

Midnight mass was solemnized last night at St. Anthony's church, and mass is also being held today, Christmas Day, at the hours of 9, 9:15, and 10:30 a.m.

FOUND SANTA'S BELLS.

A sack of bells were found a few blocks to the southwest of the C. P. R. depot. They appeared to have been hidden in a bush, and the finder thinks that they might have been stolen.

The South side police, however, have received no complaint of such articles having been stolen. Possibly they have been discarded by Santa Claus owing to their being no sleighing.

LOCALS.

J. M. Douglas, M. P., has returned home for the Christmas season.

J. J. Jorgensen has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Curtis are spending the Christmas holidays in Vancouver.

Mr. P. B. McNally and L. McLaughlin, principal of McNally school, are spending the Christmas holidays with friends in Calgary.

Mr. Watson of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, is visiting in Calgary. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Marks have again shown their practical interest in the students of McNally college in a tangible way by presenting them with a couple of turkey for their Christmas dinner.

SOUTH SIDE POLICE COURT.

At the South side police court on Tuesday, K. Taylor was fined $1 and $1 cost for failing to keep to the right with his auto at the corner of White avenue and first street east. Albert Smith was fined $1 and $1 cost on charge of being drunk.

Peter McDonald for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $1 and $1 cost. Dan Foster, who claimed he had only been six months in Canada and was on his way back to the U. S., was fined a total of $12 and $1 cost on two charges of assault. Each judgment carried with it a month at Fort Saskatchewan in case fine is not paid.

On the charge of theft of an overcoat, Ivan Porter, was heard and the accused, Ivan Porter, was remanded till 15 Dec. 25, in default Porter claim to be picked up the overcoat in motion for his own. The identification of the overcoat was proved by the owner having been previously marked on the lining of the inside pocket. The assault cases arose out of the attack on the clergymen the last, while they were waiting for the arrival of the police, for when they had telephoned.

BRITISH DOCTORS BILL NOW SUPPORT L. GEORGE

Remarkable Change is Taking Place in Attitude of British Medical to Lloyd-George's Insurance Bill—Many Doctors Desert Medical Association on Account of its Opposition.

London, Dec. 24.—The government is making it clear that it is not disposed to offer the doctors a higher concession in the insurance act. The indications are that further concession will not be necessary, for yesterday saw a striking change in the status of the controversy between the British medical association and the constituted authorities.

Widespread defections from the association's policy have set in and in a body decided to defy the association and agree to work under the insurance act on the terms offered by the chancellor of the exchequer, Lord George.

In alliance as far apart as Liverpool, Cardiff, Birmingham and Brighton the decision of the Birmingham is being copied. Last night 100 prominent members of the British medical association resigned their positions on the council of that body on the ground that the organization's policy, if carried out persistently, would be detrimental to the present and future of the medical profession.

ONCE MISSIONARY GETS CONVICTED

Eden Owens, former Fyson Evangelist, found guilty of extortion, and hanged.

New York, Dec. 23.—Eden J. Owens, once a Fyson volunteer missionary, was convicted of extortion by a jury before Justice Goff in the supreme court today. With Adamson, Percy L. Davis, Owens was accused of forcing Mrs. Art. Chabrois, a well-to-do widow, to surrender $1,013 in return for a purported affidavit damaging the character of her son, another member of the Carroll household. Owens was remanded for sentence on Friday and within fifteen minutes the trial of Davis was begun.

Jurymen Owens' trial Mrs. Carroll testified that after she had handed Owens and Davis $150 to Chabrois' wife and a check for $1,000 Owens got down on his knees and said, "In thanks for this wonderful opportunity to protect this helpless woman from blackmailers."

SANTA CLAUS TO COST CITY ONE MILLION

This is Estimated Amount Expended in Connection With Christmas Festivities.

$400,000 THE HARVEST
FOR THE STOREKEEPERS

Dinners and Decorations Will Add
Huge Sum to the Total
Outlay.

Before Santa Claus leaves Edmonton tonight for another whole year, his all too brief stay in this city will have cost him close to one million dollars. That is a whole lot of money, to be sure, but even so, it is a whole lot in dollars and cents to the storekeepers, and it is safe to say that this year at least $400,000 will be spent in miscellaneous purchases.

What the Turkey Costs.

The best thing that has come to the Christmas spirit is the dinner, and all its accessories. And this year the Christmas dinner will cost more than ever before. Ten dollars for the meal of the day will be a low average for a family of five. So that $100,000 for dinner tomorrow will be a very conservative estimate.

Then how about all the little accessories to the dinner table and to decorations generally around the home. Flowers, candy, and all such things will make quite an item. The Christmas candy bill in Edmonton will run close to $25,000 while for flowers, holly, Christmas trees and other decorations at least $12,000 will be spent.

Then when those to whom money has come easily start out to buy Christmas boxes for wives and daughters, furs and jewelry are the first choices. It is estimated by one dealer in furs in this city that fully $200,000 will be spent on fur coats, stoles, muffs and hats—not this season for gifts. The jewelry bill, on the other hand, will come close to $100,000, and might very easily run over that sum if half-a-dozen of Edmonton's millionaires suddenly decided to make presents of ropes of pearls or costly diamonds.

Gold is Popular.

Then there are many people who believe that the very best gift of all is a young lady's account, a ten or twenty dollar gold piece, or cheque and money orders are popular. The deed to a piece of land. This little item in Edmonton's Christmas bill will be well on to $10,000. A trip through the banks this morning revealed the fact that fully half of those who approached the paying teller were getting pay orders or cheques for real money, gold. Others again were arranging for small accounts to be opened in somebody else's name, and the bank book will be one of the gifts in the morning tomorrow. So far, little or no mention has been made of that most general of all gifts for the man, money's surprise. Add to this the bill for spirits of the bottled variety, and the total, surely $60,000 is not too much.

But everyone does not stay in Edmonton for Christmas. This means that a large amount of money has been spent in the past two or three weeks for railway fares. At least $10,000 would be required to cover this item of Christmas expense.

Another $5,000 will be spent in Edmonton this year on church and fraternal benefactions and functions, and in bringing cheer to the less fortunate.

And finally, thousands of people in Edmonton tomorrow will attend matinees and evening performances in local theatres and "pavilions" which will take another $4,000 or $5,000, and that just about completes the list, without counting in all that will be spent in one way and another during the day, just because tomorrow is Christmas and a holiday.

Street car traffic also shows marked signs of the influence of Christmas week. During the past seven days a total of $17,731 was paid in the city for street car fares, an average of $2,000 a day, which also means some spending, when taken in the aggregate.

Union Pacific to Use Wireless.
Washington, Dec. 24.—The Union Pacific railway yesterday made application to the department of commerce and labor for a license to operate a wireless system along its system. The company wishes to have a technical experiment station and the government is requested to give permission for such a station which it is said, will be the second of the kind in the country. Several wireless stations, it is announced, will be constructed when the license is issued.

Run Down By Freight Car.
Moore Jaw, Dec. 23.—H. McLean, brickman, employed by the C. P. R., was run down by a freight car in the west yards this morning and sustained injuries that will necessitate the amputation of his leg.

GREECE WILL DEMAND THE AEGEAN ISLANDS

This is one of the Conditions of Peace With Turkey—lands in Question Formerly Belonged to Greece, and are Populated by Greeks.

London, Dec. 24.—M. Venizelos, the prime minister of Greece, and president of the Greek peace delegation, was interviewed tonight on the question of the Aegean Islands of the Aegean Islands of Turkey to Greece.

"You may say with emphasis," he stated, "that it will be an cardinal point in the policy of Greece to demand from Turkey the restoration to Greece of the Aegean Islands of Lesbos, Imbros, Tenedos, Thasos, Chios, Mytilene and the others; in fact, all the islands were once Greek. In these are included such as has been occupied by the allies in the recent war with Turkey.

"Inasmuch as the Turkish fleet has kept to the Dardanelles, Greece is now mistress of the Aegean sea. Yet it is not as conquerors that we claim these islands, but as inheritors.

To Regain Her Own Children. "Greece is not trying to aggrandise the government of others, who is not seeking to reduce Aegean populations into submission she is only trying to regain her own children and restore them to their proper place as part and parcel of Greek rule and civilization.

"The Isles of Greece were Greek since the dawn of history. They have remained Greek for more than four centuries, and now they were involved in the conquest and the fall of Constantinople; the purest Greek in all greater Greece is spoken there; the sentiment of their inhabitants never has been alienated, but Hellenic; their religion is Greek."

Mr. Venizelos was asked whether Greece would insist on her demand for these islands.

Greece Will Insist. "Greece will insist," he answered. "The Turks have used in opposition to our demand that our possession of Chios and Mytilene would be a menace to their power and territory in Asia Minor. This is a specious argument. It might as well be argued that there should be no modification of the boundary of Bulgaria and Turkey. Thracian Bulgarians would become a menace to Turkey, but the boundary between these countries is conventional and unalterable. The sea is a natural barrier between the Aegean Islands and the Asian mainland.

"We cannot, to otherwise," M. Venizelos continued, "than demand the Aegean Islands, but it would be contrary to diplomatic practice to discuss, while the peace conference is proceeding, how far we may go in substantiating the enforcement of our demands."

"In reply to the question if Greece demanded the islands on the coast of Asia Minor was it not possible that Greece might go further and seek a larger part of Asia Minor?"

"Only a fringe of Asia Minor is Greek and Greece might as well ask for Italy and the coasts of Southern Italy, which in classic times were Greek colonies, as to continue herself with Asia Minor."

"No, Greece asks only for that which ethnically belongs to her; that which will be a common bond of nationhood. Greece is a liberator, not a conqueror."

London, Dec. 24.—The Morning Post today publishes an authoritative Greek account of the recent fighting at Euboea, according to which Ali Pasha, the Turkish commander at Zela and his chief of staff, David Pasha, both were killed and the entire Turkish army in the district now fighting were captured by the Greeks. The despatch states that the expedition against Euboea, which was commenced by the Greek Crown Prince, experienced tremendous difficulties owing to the bad roads and the mountainous country and that it was extremely hard to obtain supplies.

A special despatch from Athens says the Greek army, advancing on Janina has suffered a check and that reinforcements have been sent out.

Five Threatened Gift-Laden Train. Wellesley, Mass., Dec. 23.—Fifteen threatened to lessen the joy of Christmas when an engine car from Boston heavily laden with gifts including Mrs. Mabel Hunt Slater's presents to the 2,500 children of the mill operative, caught fire en route today. Some of the packages were destroyed, and others damaged. Mrs. Slater's gifts to the mill children here, are twenty-five hundred $1 bills, which were not burned. John Daniels, the express messenger, was badly burned fighting the fire.

U. S. COAL TRADE BENEFITS

Cardiff, Wales, Dec. 24.—The American coal trade is benefiting by the threatened strike of British seamen. It was announced yesterday on the local exchange here that the Egyptian railroads have placed in South Wales only 50,000 tons of their 150,000 ton order, the remainder having been placed in the United States.

South Wales had been asked to tender bids for the whole amount and would have been awarded the full contract, under normal circumstances. The result seemed to the one frankly given for adding the greater part of the order to America.

This is the second time within the current year that transportation troubles have resulted in diverting orders for coal from Wales to the other side of the Atlantic. Important contracts having been made with American producers during the recent strike at the docks.

NEW YORK IS STORM BOUND BY BLIZZARD

Blinding Storm Raging Along the Coast of Atlantic and in New York.

TWO VESSELS HAVE BEEN DRIVEN HARD AGROUND

United Fruit Co.'s Steamer With 60 Passengers Aboard is in Perilous Position.

New York, Dec. 25.—Blizzard, born at midnight and growing each hour, swept New York and the north-east Atlantic seaboard today. By noon the storm had blotted the city with ten inches of snow; the wind was from a stiff easterly and had driven two vessels on the ice-bound beach of the New York coast. With the snow still falling at midday, the city was fast becoming storm-bound. In the open places the snow was driven to a depth of many feet.

The local weather bureau declared the storm would continue with unabated force for some hours at least, and that the wind would attain still greater velocity.

Reports of snow-bound suburban trains, of street traffic blocked, and of vessels storm-bound were received from eastern cities as the day advanced.

High Sea Prevents Rescue. Captain John S. Cole, superintendent of the life saving station, ordered the five crews to the scene of the grounding, but at noon none had been able to reach the vessel.

A wireless message from the ship, which was received by the station, stated that the vessel was in a perilous position.

The stranded vessel lies on one of the worst portions of the dangerous stretch of coast about three miles off the little beach life saving station.

RAILWAY OFFICIALS PLEAD NOT GUILTY

Counsel for G.T.R. President Says U. S. Government Has No Case Against Claim.

New York, N.Y., Dec. 24.—Charles S. Mellen, president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, and E. J. Chamberlain, president of the Grand Trunk railroad, were in New York this morning ready to appear before Judge Hough in the Federal District Court.

The grand jury indicted the two men on charges of conspiracy to defraud the United States of $10,000.

The indictment was returned by the grand jury on January 7th to further consider the New England railroad situation, also were discussed.

The government officials are now giving special attention to the possibility of bringing civil suit under the Sherman law against the two men to enjoin them from continuing the alleged combination.

At the Ontario Inquest held here on Tuesday evening, Colonel A. G. Smith, in thanking the local branch for the invitation extended him to be present, threw out the suggestion that the Lloydminster case should return the visit and come up in a body on May 24th, when a big patriotic demonstration is to be arranged.

The colonel also suggested that the splendid local regiment of mounted men, the Lloydminster club, should return the visit and come up in a body on May 24th, when a big patriotic demonstration is to be arranged.

York to plead to the indictment.

The crime charged, Mr. Smith said, is that for which Mr. Smith, extradition could be asked.

May mean Civil Action.

Washington, D.C., Dec. 24.—The department of justice today began considering further moves under the Sherman anti-trust law against the New York, New Haven and Hartford and Grand Trunk railroads, officials of which were indicted at New York.

The government officials are now giving special attention to the possibility of bringing civil suit under the Sherman law against the two men to enjoin them from continuing the alleged combination.

CONVICT SON BUT NOT THE FATHER, HE SAID

Remarkable Appeal of Attorney for George Bernhardt, One of the Defendants in the Dynamite Conspiracy Trial at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Dec. 25.—Four years and George Bernhardt, one of the defendants in the Dynamite Conspiracy Trial at Indianapolis.

The boy is the son of William C. Bernhardt, of Cincinnati, one of the defendants accused of aiding the McManara to blow up non-union jobs. The wife of about 20 defendants, with almost as many children, lived with the family for almost three months, and while the parents were listening to the denial of the charges of framing the boy was romping with an early supply of Christmas presents.

Don't Convict Bernhardt. "If after this long trial you must, convict somebody," said Attorney William C. Bernhardt, "don't convict William Bernhardt, for he is an industrious, law-abiding citizen, and a good father. He has worked hard all his life and has raised a family. Blowing up non-union jobs at night or resorting to violence in a strike is not characteristic of a man who raises a family. But, I say, if you must convict somebody by the name of Bernhardt, convict the father, not the son."

Letters Read For Six Months. Mr. Harding referred to letters (taken from the town treasury) international headquarters in Indianapolis on which the government charges a dynamite conspiracy was conducted through the mail. Mr. Harding said the letters remained in the headquarters for six months after John J. McManara, the secretary, had been locked up at Los Angeles and held by the writers of the letters ever went to Indianapolis to recover them.

"Wav. after the McManara arrest charged with dynamiting, didn't three men risk to Indianapolis to recover their letters?" asked the attorney. "The natural move of a guilty man would be to destroy evidence of his guilt. But these men did not attempt to reach the letters which were in the McManara office unimpeded until the government took possession of them."

Had Secret Telephone. Mr. Harding also said the government for three months had the telephone instrument hidden under President Frank M. Ryan's desk at the union office and had not produced evidence any information secured through that secret telephone.

Senator John W. Kern said he would speak tomorrow in defense of Herbert B. Hoxby and Eugene A. Clancy, and that A. Teismore, of San Francisco. When Senator Kern concludes the government is to begin an argument to continue for two and one half days.

WILL COLOR LINE BE DRAWN IN OLYMPICS?

On the eve of the recent Olympic games it was predicted that one of the features of the Stockholm festival would be the improvement and advance shown by European athletes. That a Londoner, who was supposed to have been one of the best of the world, was not to be seen at the Olympic games was not unexpected, and the result shows how the trend of the festival has been to sports and pastimes.

The fact that Sweden and Norway have presented the United States in the city of Stockholm has led many athletes to ask why the British Empire did not take up its part in the festival. It is a very big problem, indeed, and one which is being considered by the British Empire.

These thoughts are called to mind by the fact that the British Empire has not taken up its part in the festival. It is a very big problem, indeed, and one which is being considered by the British Empire.

The following letter appears in the Calgary Herald:

As one who has seen fair play in the past, I am sure that the British Empire will take up its part in the festival. It is a very big problem, indeed, and one which is being considered by the British Empire.
